Services: The regional administrative agency for the Aging network; assistance with employment, Medicare, Community-Based Options, RSVP of SI volunteering, and Veteran-Directed Home Care (a VIP service).

The following services are provided by local agencies for senior adults, their caregivers, and people raising the children of their relatives. They can be obtained by calling the nutrition meal sites indicated as a “focal point.”

Adult Protective Services – investigation and help for older adults and adults with disabilities when abuse is suspected

Choices for Care – care managers assess for eligibility and coordinate care for frail senior adults

Community-Based Options – housekeeping, errands, and much more

Congregate Meals – meals provided in congregate settings, such as senior centers & restaurants

Evidence-Based Exercise Programs – exercise program to improve balance and fitness

Family Caregivers Support – information and help to access services for caregivers of senior adults and people raising children of their relatives. Services include counseling, in-home respite care, and gap filling services

Healthy Ideas counseling is for senior adults, their caregivers, and grandparents raising grandchildren. Helps them cope with stress and depression

Home Delivered Meals – meals delivered to homebound senior adults

Home Modifications – adapting the structure of a home to meet the physical need of frail seniors

In-Home Services – housekeeping and errands

In-Home Respite Care – temporary, substitute care or supervision for frail senior adults in their home to give the caregiving spouse or family member a break

Information & Assistance – Information about services and help to apply

Legal Assistance – advice, education, and help with most legal matters

Money Management – trained and certified assistance with bill paying

Outreach – social service workers go to homes and community facilities to inform people about aging services

Ombudsman – advocates for people in nursing homes and assisted living facilities

Take Charge of Your Health – self-management workshops for people with chronic disease, such as or arthritis, heart disease, etc.

The Savvy Caregiver – self-help workshops for people with caring for older people

Transportation is to and from community locations, usually in buses and vans

Veteran-Directed Home Care (a VIP service) – helps veterans obtain and pay for housekeeping, errands, and personal care

The following Aging services may not be available in every county:

All Day Club – care and supervision of frail senior adults in a community center for a portion of the day. Used as a break for caregiving spouses and family members

Community Care in Residential Settings – affordable housekeeping, meals, and personal care of frail senior adults in assisted living facilities with 24-hour staffing
